

DIVERSE CROPS-DIVERSE CHALLENGES
August 7-10, 2017 University of California, Davis

Program

Monday August 7th

Morning:

Tours UC Davis and Syngenta

Afternoon: All workshops are open to Conference attendees

USDA/NIFA workshop

Graduate student workshop: Speaking about Science - Food Revolution movie

Early career workshop: mentorship

Evening:

Reception and band (Twisted DNA)

Tuesday August 8th

Morning:

Session I - Welcome/keynote

Session II - mini-talks/Poster session I

Afternoon:

Session III - Applying advances in phenotyping to diverse crops

Session IV - General Breeding (nutrition, disease, etc.)

Evening:

Banquet/Awards

Wednesday August 9th

Morning:

Session V - Breeding for organic and low-input farming systems

Session VI - mini-talks/Poster session I

Afternoon:

Session VII – Intellectual Property

Session VIII - Accelerating Genetic Gain

Evening:

PBCC business meetings

NAPB business meetings

Graduate student dinner

Thursday August 10th

All Day: 8 am – 9 pm

Ag Tour to Salinas coastal area